Method to develop the inner guru

Please, my precious and holy guru, show me your beautiful smiling face. Grant me the blessings of your breathtaking speech and look upon me, tormented by suffering, with your infinitely compassionate mind.

Now, I beseech you from the depths of my heart, with single pointed concentration: when I meditate upon you at the crown of my head, please gracefully take your seat at the centre of the wheel of bliss, and bless me to be able to accomplish whatever virtuous wish comes to my mind, swiftly, easily and without exception.

When I call upon you, please peacefully appear in the space in front of me, so that I may complete the two accumulations of merit and wisdom, in the manner of a vast, increasing wave, in order to purify all my negative actions.

When I pray to you from my heart, please joyfully take the seat at the centre of the lotus at my heart, and remain there at all times, day and night, until I attain the essence of enlightenment, and bless me that I may accomplish all favourable conditions leading to happiness, and that all conditions obstructing the path to freedom be quelled.

Bless me that I may effortlessly accomplish all wishes in accordance with the dharma, pacify all evil thoughts and actions, and firmly set my mind in the direction of the dharma.

In short, from now, in all my lives, in the future and in the bardo, I need no other refuge than you.

Please look upon me with your compassionate eyes.

To this suffering being without refuge, please pay attention, and mature my ordinary body, speech and mind so that I reach the bliss of inseparable oneness with your holy body, speech and mind.

Never separated from your holy body, speech and mind may I always enjoy good fortune.

Through all my lives may I never be separated from the perfect guru, and so enjoy the splendour of dharma. Perfecting the virtues of the paths and bhumiś, may I quickly attain the state of Vajradhara.

To the Guru and Three Jewels I go for refuge.
Visualising myself as Vajrasattva, holding vajra and bell,
I uphold all the dharmas of sutra and tantra,
Refrain from all misconduct, gather all virtuous dharmas
And with the four givings benefit migrators.

Shambala dedication

In short, by the collection of the white virtues I have gathered here, may this world transform into Shambala, the treasury of jewels, and may we complete the stages of the path of highest yoga tantra.
